PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

What is the old saying – you can't get blood from a stone? Well, members of the GCBA will have the opportunity to prove that they are not made of stone but actually have a heart and soul. The GCBA will be sponsoring a Blood Drive which will take place on December 2 and 3, 2003. There will be blood mobiles located at several at downtown locations convenient to your law offices. Our goal is to have enough participation from the legal community to meet the area's blood needs for one day - 260 units. Dave Edwards and Jeff Merriam will be contacting law firms in the very near future to get commitments for donations. Additional information about the blood drive will be posted in future editions of the G-Bar News. I hope that you will roll up your sleeves and join me in showing the Greenville community just how committed we are to this great place in which we work and/or live.

I also want to make you aware of another event that the GCBA is conducting in October. Chris Gantt has organized a mini-CLE which will take place on October 17 at County Council Chambers. The CLE will focus on the basics of corporate law and includes topics such as choosing the right business entity; wills, living wills and powers of attorneys; UCC filings; and real estate closings and landlord tenant matters. The CLE will start at 8:45 a.m. and end at 12:00 p.m., for 3.0 hours of CLE credit. The cost to register is $25.00. Presenters include the Honorable Ted Sauvain, Susan Cobb Singleton, Art Howson and Sean Faulkner.

Finally, below is a calendar of the remaining events that we are planning for the last quarter of the year.

- October 17—Mini CLE, Greenville County Council Chambers, 3.0 CLE hours, $25. Contact Nancy Griffeth at 242-2001. Deadline to register — October 10.

- October 23—Judges Reception, Greenville County Club, 6—9 p.m. $35 per person, spouses are welcome!
- Tommy Thomason luncheon—details to follow.
- Blood Drive—Dec. 2 and 3
- December 5—Annual CLE sponsored by the GCBA. Greenville County Council Chambers
- December 11—Christmas party. Greenville Country Club. $35 per person, spouses are welcome. Drop in 7—10 p.m.

We close out the year with two major events: The Memorial Service and the Annual Meeting. The Memorial Service will be held on Thursday, December 18, at the Greenville County Courthouse followed by the Annual Meeting to elect officers for 2004 which will be held at the firm of Nexsen Pruet.

FAMILY COURT LIAISON COMMITTEE REPORT
August 15, 2003

Present: Judge Stephen S. Bartlett, Judge R. Kinard Johnson Jr., Shirley Bruce, Bobbie Hill, Terry Reid, Jennifer Roberts, Robert Rosenfeld, Paul Wickensimer, J. M. Morgan, Linda Roberts, Faye Hart and Christine Howard.

Please remember that all motions and proposed orders must now be accompanied by the Motion Cover Sheet when filed with the Clerk of Court. All Orders and Motions must be submitted to the Clerk's office for processing. Please do not submit directly to the Judge or the Judge's secretaries or your papers may be returned to you and your filing delayed.

Attorneys are advised to request enough time for their contempt actions. If the contempt action is about a violation of visitation, harassment, or restraining orders etc... then generally 30 or more minutes are needed.

Attorneys are advised to double the time for their hearing if an interpreter will be present at the hearing. These hearing usually take twice as long.

The Clerk's office has asked all attorneys to be aware of the strike date on the top of the pleadings. If your case has been continued then you will need to submit a hearing request prior to the strike date in order for your case to remain active. Also, please remember that only the administrative judge can extend a case beyond 270 days.

If you are submitting a Motion to Restore please include the "R" in the docket number at the end of the number. Also, all orders must include a caption.

Please do not congregate in the hallways right outside the Judge's courtrooms. After your hearing, please go directly to the lobbies and speak with your clients. Congregating outside the doorways creates noise and disruptions for the judges and court staff.

There will be no meeting in September. The November/December meeting will be announced in October.

The next Family Court Liaison meeting will be October 17, 2003 at 2:00 p.m. in the Conference Room in the Judge's Hallway. Anyone who is unable to attend these meetings but has issues they would like addressed may contact the following lawyers: Christine M. Howard (282-8575); Wallace A. Mullinax (233-4351); W. Marsh Robertson (242-1090); Robert M. Rosenfeld (235-9613); or Thomas W. Traxler (242-3566).
